MIRABEAU B. LAMAR SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Here students meet and learn how to develop skills that will help them to answer the challenges which the "pathway to the stars" may make.

THE MAP OF TEXAS, OUR PROUDEST HERITAGE.

"SO TO LAMAR, ALMA MATER, SING HAIL, HAIL, HAIL."

TWENTY years ago the doors of Mirabeau B. Lamar Senior High School opened under the guidance of William J. Moyes and J. Herbert Wright. New stars sent their luster down a luminous pathway between the firmament and the Earth. The Earth bodies were strong and valiant and steady with hands reaching for the stars. The pathway seemed straight and clear. Ambition, energy, power added zest as the years rolled on. The light rays gathered brilliance and color, and their streamers broadened and glowed. Honors and success accrued in many fields, as the uplifted hands of faculty and students reached ever higher and higher to the blue of the celestial bodies and toward the glow of an unattainable goal of TRUTH and LIGHT.

TODAY the pattern continues to shape under the leadership of J. HERBERT WRIGHT and K. LAMAR CAMP.

*"YE STARS! which are the poetry of heaven,
If in your bright leaves we would read the fate
Of men and empires, — 'tis to be forgiven,
That in our aspirations to be great,
Our destinies o'erleap their mortal state,
And claim a kindred with you; for ye are
A beauty and a mystery, and create
In us such love and reverence from afar
That fortune, fame, power, life have Named themselves a star."*

FOREWORD

Lamar's motto, VA-T'EN AUX ETOILES, is our theme.
The theme is simple, but its shadings and implications are complex, because reaching for the stars is complex.
By "stars" we mean the best facets of life—
life with its growth and its experiences; with its dreams
which now and then reach beyond the stars.
On this conception of reaching for the stars,
your staff has discussed,
planned, and produced your OREND A.
We present to you this yearbook as a skeleton record of your life here;
we present you with the memories of the stars
you have reached and of the stars you have found beyond your reach.
You must complete the record.
We hope Lamar has taught you to find in your firmament a world filled with challenging and terrifying greatness.

LAMAR PARENTS

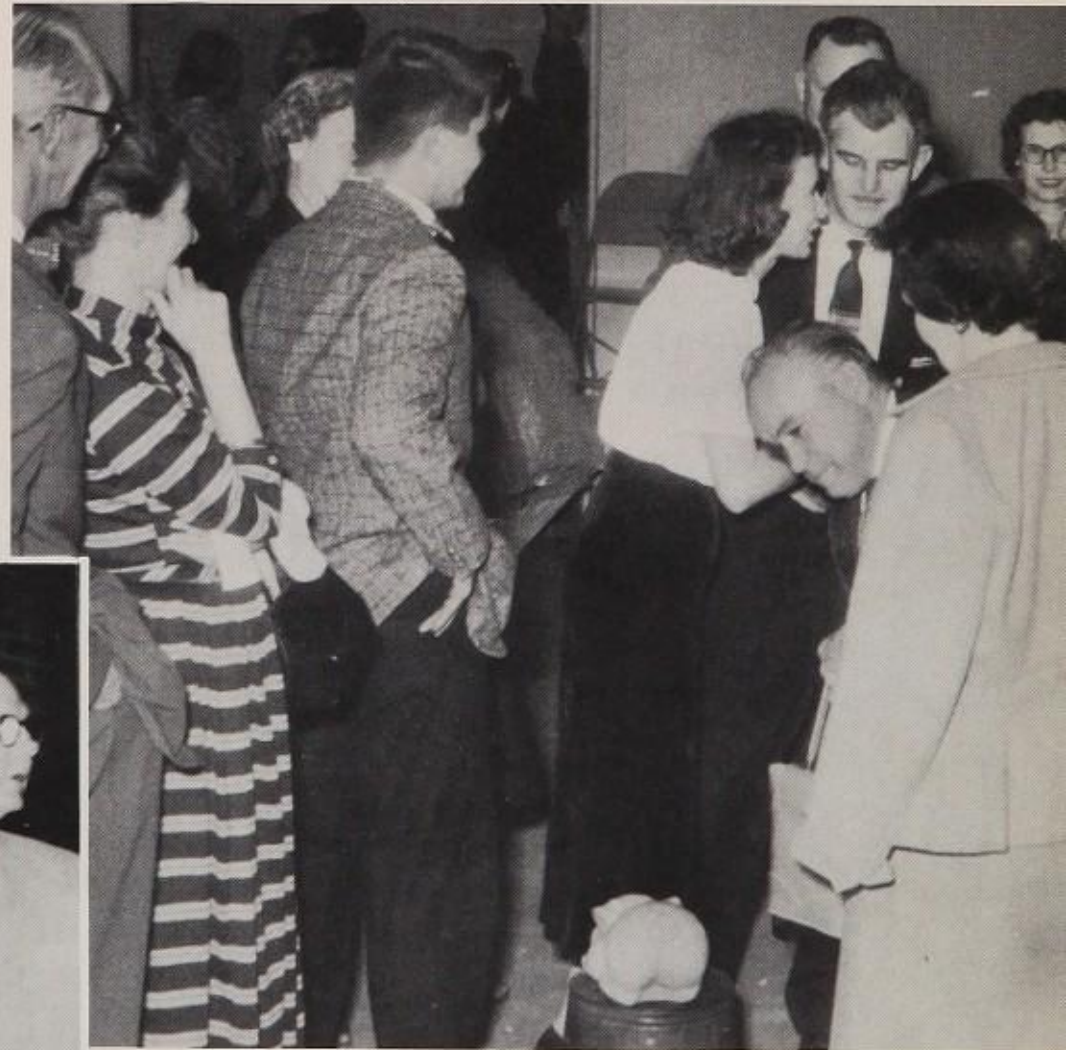

Homeroom Mothers and teachers chat over the tea table at the teachers' tea.

MR. JOHN K. WHITTEN
President of Dads' Club.

Close relationship between parents, faculty, and students—Dads' Club sponsors school projects—Parent and Teacher Association, Lamar's backbone—good will faculty tea—annual open house to educate parents of student activities—parent and teacher consultation—"Together we stand."

Fathers enjoy "light up time" immediately following the Dads' Club meeting.

At the open house the piggy bank is main attraction in the "Spotlight" Theatre.

Genevieve Filson

ART

A little bit of talent and a lot of work—art—unbounded pride in the finished products—dazzling colors splashed across a poster board—lazy mobiles on a string—cut-outs and glue-heads bent industriously over the work table—paper mache—claycoated hands—"clean up before the bell"—All this is art?

Mary Lorena Brown

Busy day in clay for art students Margaret Mahoney, Bill Parsons, Betsy Bonin, Jay Hollyfield, Jim Stanley, Barbara Coker, Donna Mills, Susie Sheffield, Karen Kuhne, Lucy Snyder, Mary Alfano, Barbara Dederick, Rebecca Harrison, Terry Firsching, Galyn Barr, Dave McFadyen.

John Heinzerling, Eleanor Kramer, and Sharon Strong realize that, "You simply can't avoid memorizing the keyboard."

Mrs. Mary Helen Rowzee

COMMERCIAL

"What's the matter with this typewriter, or is it I?"
 —Keep your eyes on your copy paper—Neat and efficient—"May I borrow a piece of typing paper?"
 —World's record is one hundred forty one words per minute, wow!—Dizzy fingers—Typing paper is a threat to the allowance—Broken fingernails—Exasperation—Results well worth while.

Preparing to beat the world record are Mary Ann Sawyer, Sydney Richards, Marilyn McKee, Karen Tellepsen, Sylvia Lamb, Rose Marie McClaran, Carol Herbsleb, Kay Clark, and Anne Kelley.

Variety Show Cowpokes Pat McMurrough, Jere Wicker, Jerry Tillman, Alan Hill, Jerry Wright, and Armistead Powell sing at the gate of the Bar K.

"Louder, you can't be heard!"—fall show, "What a Life"—Bring your jeans and prepare to paint—cross downstage center—Denny's Demons and Dolls—"Don't turn your back to the audience."—spring musical—"What's my cue?"—one act play—theatre in the round, not the drama shack—Rehearsal at 7:00.

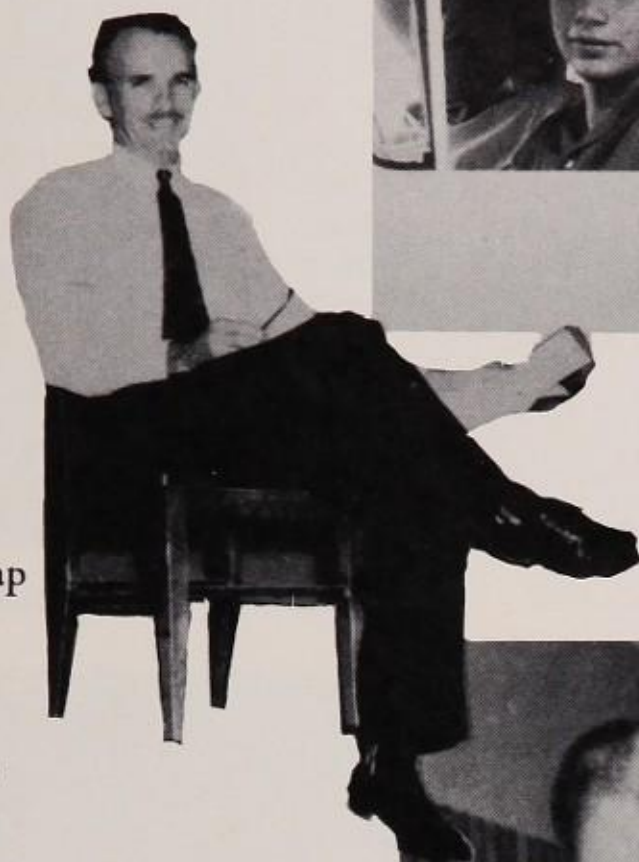

"Peter, did you ever kiss a girl?" Kay Pope asks blushing Mike Lurie in the contest play, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

The cast of "What a Life" prove that our parents, just like we, led such a life.

Mr. Gilbert E. Hamric

Mr. James Bryan Millsap

Apply brakes, make signal, zoom!! Dow Mims, Mr. Millsap, Wayne Shull, Mary Lou Carlile and Louise Wilson learn how to make a left turn.

DRIVERS' EDUCATION

The car, inside and out — How to change a tire — "Mr. Millsap, how do you run out of gas at the right time?" — study the drivers' handbook — "Nervous, Mr. Hamric?" — Dragging for Cokes is not on the agenda — Graduation day at the State Highway Department.

At the state convention Mr. Millsap laughs gleefully as he is awarded a yellow rose of Texas.

Marjorie Trulan, Ann Turner, Betty Healy, and Linda Holts ask Mr. Millsap "What makes it go?"

ENGLISH

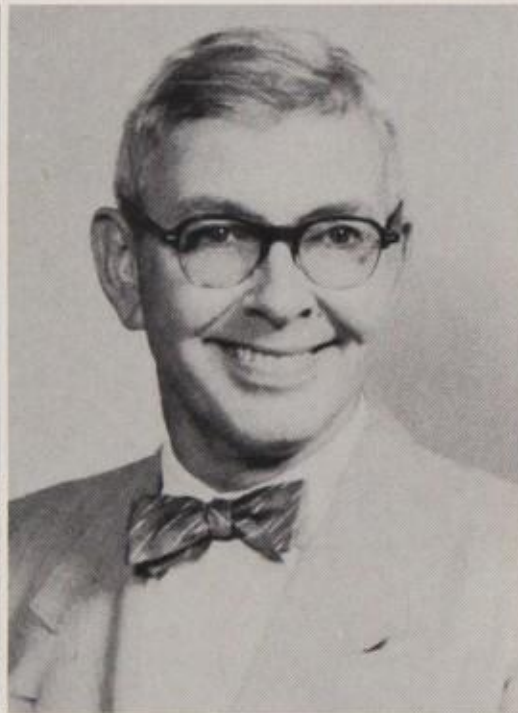

Research papers — "What good is grammar?" — mile-long book lists — "Et tu Brute?" — "Words Are Important" — Poor ol' Silas — theme, plot, character — "My Autobiography" — Hepzibah and Clifford — Bryant's "Thanotopsis" — "Is this a dagger . . . ?" — occasional records — a comparison of Hamlet and Macbeth — mastering sentence structure — Required, four years of English.

Mrs. Margaret Young Page

Mrs. Josephine J. Cloud

Mrs. Mozelle Constant

Mrs. LaFaye Ford

Mrs. Mae C. Gates

Where else would you find any more large words, all in the same book, than The House of the Seven Gables. Eddie Boudreaux, Margy Kuebler, Lillian Jungle, Helen Hendrick, and Lee Daviss try their hand at these words.

Mrs. Opal L. Chase

Miss Helen Greenwood

Fascinated by the class's unique portraits of the Canterbury Pilgrims are Dennis McMahn, Earl Vanzant, and Penny Hess.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Va t'en aux etoiles — memory work and translations — "Alouette" — "All Latin is Greek!" — Subjunctive mood
— Wednesday tests — "Conjugate these verbs in all tenses" — German, too — Echoing French Christmas carols — "I came, I saw, I conquered." — 'But I can't roll my "r's".

"Feliz Navidad," croaks the duck piñata to Judy Tucker, Martha Smith, and Norman Johnson.

Mrs. Virginia Keller, Chairman

Mrs. Sarah D. Earle

Mrs. Helen S. Earl

Miss Nell Morris

Miss Julia Pleasants

Mrs. Elanor T. Huddleston

Mrs. Walleah McArthur

Mrs. Rose B. Goodrich

GUIDANCE

"Four year plans, please" — "Drop chemistry? Absolutely not!" — January and March college boards in the cafeteria. — "Yes, Civics is required" — Scholarship tests, twenty-five from Lamar in finals — "College, anyone?"

Mrs. B. R. Hennes

Why, Allison Finney, you should share a little of your 'before college boards' confidence with Nancy Thornall or Ellen Olsen.

Mrs. H. L. Sandel

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Wilson's cookies—Hunger pains in the hall—"Why don't boys take clothing?"—scorched pans—fall and spring style shows—"Ouch, a pin!"—holiday decorations—Economy, how to eat more for less money—Hum of a Singer—Trips to the grocery store, yum!—Housewives anonymous.

You're not fooling anyone, Linda Hamm, Lynn Fleming, Virginia Williams, Antonette Michulka, and Karen Keathley. It looks good, but how does it taste?

Lue Taylor, Barbara Biering, Nancy Frost, Marilyn Cowden, and Judy McFrancis bend with nimble fingers over their sewing.

Careful, Kathryn Ballard, don't burn your fingers! Ah, that aroma!

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Workshop — handmade furniture — bang of a hammer, hum of a saw — ceramics — model houses — T squares — large, work-scarred hands — nails, wood, and cement glue — varnish and shining finishes on tables — Do it yourself department — "We'll get to work in a minute."

Mr. Deschner supervises Bobby Cardin as he works with the lathe.

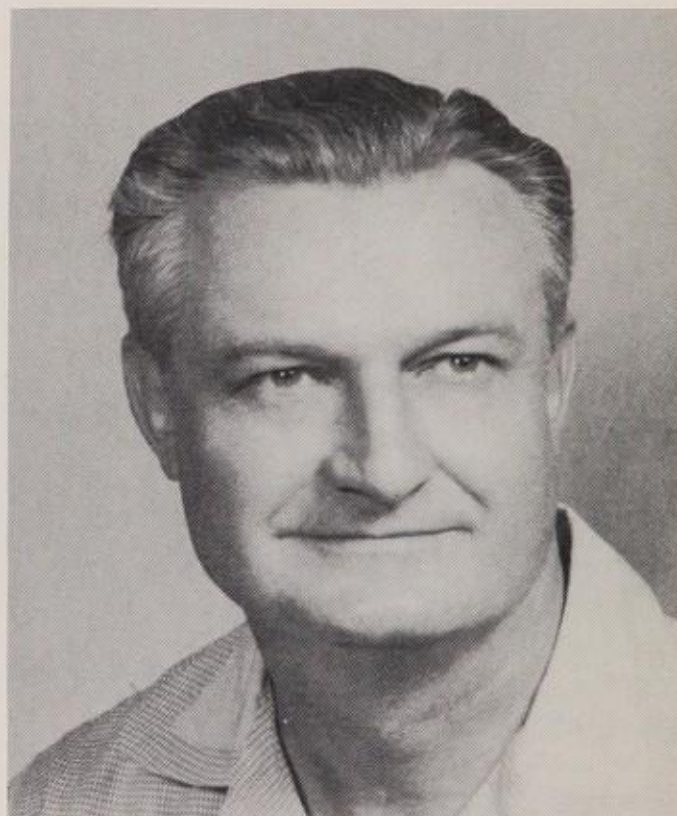

Jack Gilbert is putting the finishing touches on his masterpiece.

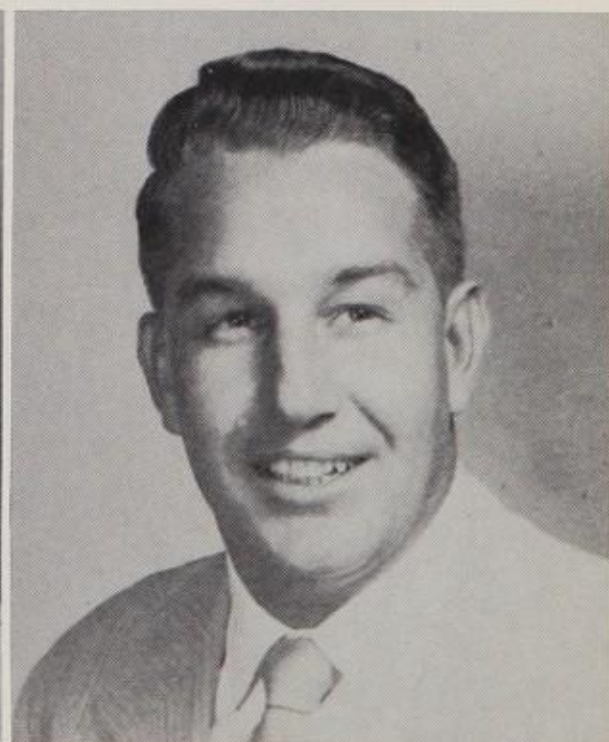

Mr. H. E. Butler

Mr. J. H. Carr

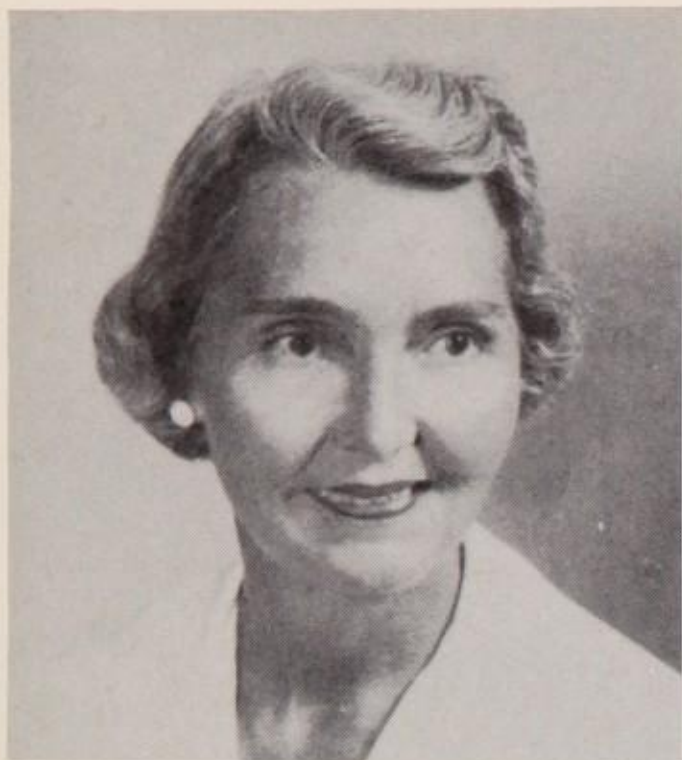

Mr. Arlye W. Deschner

Mr. Roy R. Sheffield

JOURNALISM

Miss Mattie Louise Fuller
Lancer Advisor

Deadlines — Proofreading and more proofreading —
"Write it over" — Lancer staff parties — "This is the work period!" — Due Wednesday — Orenda Banquet — Trips to the printers — Faces without names, names without faces — Future journalism giants? — "Ah, at last to press!"

The Lancer staff, Jody Wofford, Alison Finney, Dora Bell, Light Bailey, Lynn Smelley, Jeanette McCollum, Andrea Mercer, Earl Vanzant, Annes Geis, Barbara Ekblad, Nancy Riedel, Shirley McKinley, Ann Kriegel, and Kathy Johnson is out in full force to proofread.

Miss Helen Weinberg
Orenda Advisor

In ol' 302 the Orenda people Kyra Kerr, Sabra Hall, Tucker Willis, Kathy Sangster, Mary Trotter, Marietta Morris, and Helen Smith are busy with pictures and identifications.

LIBRARY

"I was not talking!"—"Bring your books and come with me."—The rush for reference books at term theme time—"Yes, Mrs. Cox"—Library Manual—"Where can I find a book on the social problems of the cave men?"—"This little check means that you have been sent for once."—"Who's Fenwick White?"—"Shhh!"

Mrs. Edith Y. Cox
Librarian

One boy twiddles his thumbs while everyone else works diligently in the library.

Miss Virginia Taylor
Assistant Librarian

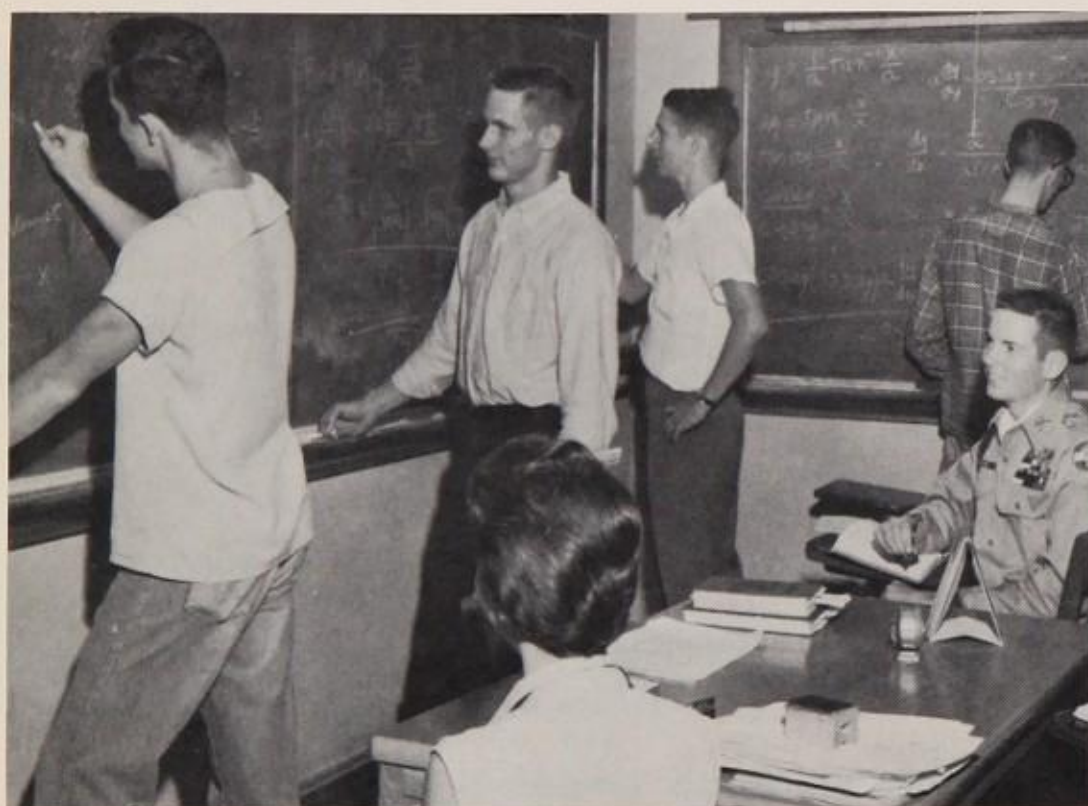

In the library workroom Judy Cole and Robbie Craze do some filing and typing. Busy, girls?

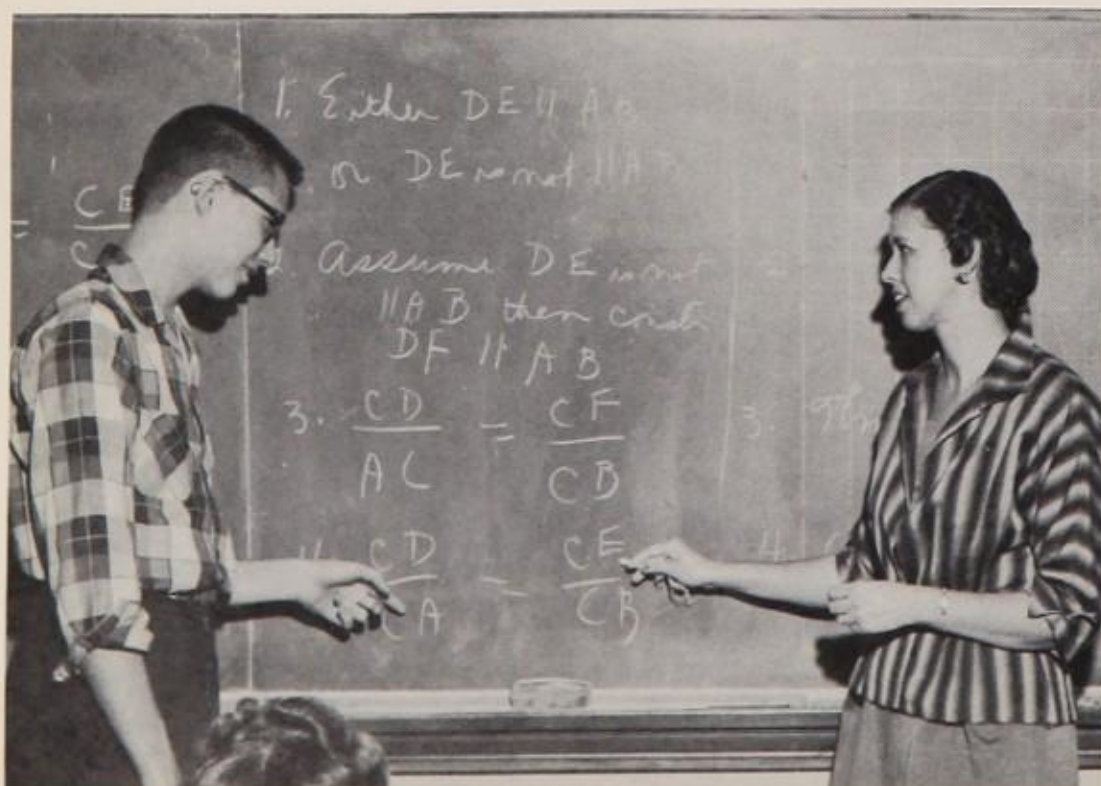

MATHEMATICS

"Trig is taught every term"—Cosine tangent secant sine 3, 14159—If a train ran backwards at eleven miles an hour—Terrifying word problems—Graphs—How to divide a cake—Given: compass, straight edge, pencil, and paper; Prove: Math is fun.

John E. Wolf, Charlene Prescott, David Hamilton, Bill Sinclair, Ronald Lovett, and Tom Caldwell check and recheck their algebra four homework in front of the class.

At the board Mrs. Pushard explains a geometry problem to confused Barry Moore.

Laurie Rayburn

Kay Olsen, Nancy Bullard, P. Wright, and Terry Tvedt gather and hyperbolas.

Mr. Edward B. Adams

Miss H. Lel Red

MUSIC

"Music alone shall live" — "Line it up" — "I can't see any diagonals in this formation" — assembly programs — "Breathe from your diaphragm" — Hallelujah Chorus — "If you feel faint, get off the stand" — "Louder, altos" — "Keep your eyes on me."

Lamar's quartet, the Keydettes, Carolyn Maniha, Jenny McCown, Linda Culver, Cay Womack practice harmonizing sitting Indian style.

Choralettes Marilyn Cocks, Lee Davis, Jill Dreyfus, Gail Pontikes, Julia Eddelman, and Bess Tooke can smile even with a mouth full of song.

"Have you heard my latest?" Mr. Keding asks Rachel Richardson, Marilyn Mott, and Mary Matthews.

Mrs. Rosamond Glosup

Mrs. Glosup points out notes for Jim Kirkpatrick, Pat McMurrough, Jerry Wright, and Dave Switzer of the Boys' Chorus.

Mary Helen Gibson and Judy Branton, Lamar's outstanding pianists, give each other pointers on the keyboard.

MUSIC

Voice and the playing of musical instruments — Hallelujah Chorus — "Assembly program rehearsal at third period" — tenors and sopranos — "Altos, you're off key!" — numerous concerts — "Girls, have you heard my latest?" grins Mr. Keding — "Don't tell anyone; but I can't read music" — "Hail to Lamar, Alma Mater, dear . . ."

Members of Lamar-O-Liers toning up around the piano are Jan McMullan, Kathy Johnson, Sue Hartgrove, Mary Lee Maginnis, Marie Russell, Yolande Oleson, Marcille Neger, Sheila Scott, Mary Ann McCall, Mrs. Rosamond Glosup, and Wylita Baxter

ORCHESTRA

Fifth period chaos—School concerts and drama shows—Three hour rehearsals—"The lights in the pit are out!"—Mr. Trongone's little flashlight—To the Shamrock with the Teachers' State Convention—"Get your instruments set up quickly!"

Wesley Sokolosky, George Williams, Ned Battista, and Mike Hattwick "blow 'dem horns."

BOY'S CHORUS

Thirty-one husky voices — The Cavaliers — western songs in the Variety Show — "Little Jimmy Brown" — Music in the air on third floor first period — mixed group singing — "Lamar, to thee, we sing . . ."

Mrs. Glosup prompts song from the mouths of Reed Robinson, Armistead Powell, David Adams, Jim Kirkpatrick, Jere Wicker, and Larry Hitt.

David Anderson, David Goncharoff, Bob Johnson, and James Tabb, with sleep in their eyes but the National Anthem in their hearts, raise our flag.

A part of Lamar's R.O.T.C. led by Earl Vanzant and Linda Moehlman marched through the streets of Houston in the annual Armistice Parade.

"Ugh, it's slimy!" exclaims Ann Knickerbocker as she and Buzzy Creekmore dissect a frog in biology lab class. Buzzy agrees with her and also notes, "It's smell is terrific!"

CHEMISTRY

Valences — specific gravity
— "Find the actual formula"
— acids, bases, and salts, gulp! — "Burning sulfur,
hold your noses" — Test tubes cost ten cents — Beakers are expensive.

Miss Hollingsworth uses a giant thermometer to take the temperature of salt over ice while Gene Good, Clayton Walling, Keith Manatt, Philip Smith, and Bill Moreland look on.

"Well, it's labeled sodium phosphate, but I'm not sure just what it is," says Janice Anderson as she dazzles Hank Carter with a cheerful smile.

SCIENCE

BIOLOGY AND PHYSICS

Biology for you—Teachers learning the "facts" from the students—tropisms—wild flower collections—"Ugh, it's a crayfish!"—Ohm's law—amoebas and protozoas—"F's" on the force in motion test — measuring focal points — exam time, everyone's day of reckoning.

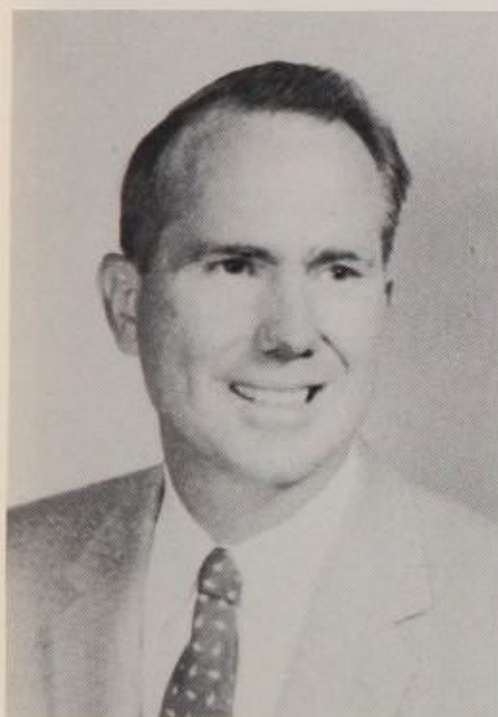

In physics class, Glenn House puzzles over a slide rule, Mike Bowen watches, Jimmy Bertrand and Ernest Conner study, and Mr. Gentry yawns.

Mr. H. Daniel Trietsch

John Biggs, Penny Hess, Nancy Baldwin, and David Jenkins show no regrets at leaving Lamar to help at the polls on election day.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Current events — "Term themes due tomorrow" — map tests — "Get out one sheet of paper" — Gettysburg Address" — four freedoms — "We, the people of the United States . . ." — extra credit work — "List the presidents in order" — "I just can't remember dates!"

Mr. Donald L. Longcope, Chairman

Mr. R. J. Alsup

Miss Inez Bryan

Mr. Henry C. Grover

Mr. Ernest M. Mills

Miss Frances J. Nesmith

Mrs. T. H. Robb

Dick Covington, James Hignight, Gilbert Shelton, Polly Hervey, Jane Yoder, and Kyra Kerr wonder ho it will be for 1956, Ike or Stevenson?

Mary Kay Manning, Pam Chilton, Betty Healy, Armistead Powell, and Charmaine Cardenas seem to be wishing that the record could talk more slowly.

Not Pictured: Mrs. Evelyn W. Allen, Mr. F. Lee Duggan, and Mrs. Florence Neyland.

Miss Helen Weinberg

Beth Clark captivates Gus Comiskey, Ronny Mollard, and Marie Barnett as she practices overcoming stagefright.

Randy Elliot catches the attention of the sleepy homerooms with the morning announcements.

John Pickett amuses Buzzy Schubert, Roberta De La Torre, Katherine MacMahon, Frank Nelson, and Dusty Baker with his impromptu speaking.

SPEECH

"Stand up straight" — perfect diction aside from a southern accent — "get, not git" — "Can't we use any notes?" — speaking with a microphone — tape recordings — "Nervous? who, Me?" — oodles of memory work — "Just be yourself."

Mrs. Maryanne J. Duffie

"Don't laugh at your own jokes" — Off to Muskogee — "Slow down" — S.M.U. and Baylor — "Don't lean on the speaker's stand" — San Jac and Bellaire — "Smooth, slow, smile" — Tulane — "Use a few arguments and hit them hard!" — Good luck, debate team.

Donna Bell and John Wolf hardly have time to smile as they prepare for a debate.

Jane Blanton speaks for the affirmative side of 90% parity as Jimmy Dannenbaum, Jim Hendrickson and Helen Bates listen.

Louann Haarman, Barry Moore, and Carmen Stallings compare speech medals won at Bellaire and Muskogee.

Winston H. Miller

Not pictured: Dietician — Mrs. Corinne Baucom plans balanced meals for Lamar students.

CAFETERIA

Through the line — "Who took my chair?" — hot rolls and marmalade — pushing, shoving, grabbing trays — "Oops, spilt my milk!" — "Buy your tickets here" — "Bring me some cookies, please" — "Wad-'em" — No more hunger pains, but was it worth it?

Don't worry! Katherine Hankamer, John Nemith, Sydney Lumpkin, and Susan Platts won't take all the cookies.

Susan Ray takes a roll while Harrell Feldt and Gary Calabretta wait patiently, or are they tapping their feet?

You can't get away from it, Sally Bell, Mike Rutherford, Tom Mayor, and Russell Jacobs. French even on the walls.

Never tardy Mr. McKnight, Mr. Mudzisz, Mr. Bodine, Mr. Matthews, and Mr. Eckeleman open the school before the sun itself is awake.

Mr. J. A. Bodine, Head Custodian

CUSTODIANS

Seldom seen, but often appreciated — Campus Guardians

— "Mr. Bodine, do you have the key to 306? My books are locked inside." — Ready to lend a helpful hand —

First to arrive, the last to leave.

Mr. Eckeleman and Mr. Matthews find a smile even as they complete their job of burning the trash.

In spite of cold, rain, or heat, Mr. McKnight realizes that the grass must be cut.

LIFE

Election time for May Queen. Suzanne Reynolds, Elaine Hocott, Sylvia Lamb, Carol Ann Schutze sort the ballots for Student Council.

Jim Carroll looks longingly at the recently arrived senior rings which Chauncey Barrett and Ned Doak are displaying so proudly.

Lunchtime. Brain watches the camera. Pete Wall, Jimmy Hall, Mike Whitehead, Johnny Weikel are undecided whether to eat or to watch.

Barbara Coker, Patsy Todd, Nancy McCord, Young Reed, Tommy Cooper, Robert Black, Cathey Searls—"Please, let me in that Civics class, Miss Weinberg."

Mary Ann Sawyer looks away from her task; Carol Ann Schutze measures Korinna Schoenfeld for cap and gown.

Tom Mayor and Jim Allison, "heap big Indians" in track, laugh with Coach Kivell about their hope for future laurels.

LIFE

Betsy Booth, Arlene Strong, Judy Jones, Judy Ley, sell lolly-pops for Polio Drive.

Adding finishing touches to porch of drama building are Jerry Tillman, Carlin Glynn, Milton Womack, Kay Jack, Buzzy Schubert.

Artists Harris Milam, Karen Kuhne, and Mike Gibson roll on paint for scenery for the Spring Show.

LIFE

Wendy Rainbow, Merry McElwrath, and Andrea Austin balance Cokes and plates piled high with calories at a graduation tea.

Is that a gun in your purse, Marilyn? Jane Hopson, Judy Pennington, Beverly Cox, and Danna Hopson before singing at the Rice Hotel.

Peggy Tidwell, Earl Vanzant, Kathy Viereck, and Mike Townsend look as if they are studying in homeroom, but they're really snoozing!

Yummmm! Sandy Stolz, Amy Bradford, Peggy Johnson, Cora Dorman, Jenny McCowan, Joanne Sweet, Cay Womack, and Carol Dudley.

Tulane aspirants Kent Watts, John Wolf, Dick Lindley, and Larry Wolf talk to Mr. Joseph E. Gibson.

Smile! Nothing like a formally posed picture of Kyra Kerr, Sallie Klep, Chauncey Barrett, and Graeme Meyers.

LIFE

Hey! Peggy Wheeler! Hurry! Margaret Bibee, Richard Black, Tommy Feagins, Julia Eddleman, and Elizabeth Burton are thirsty.

Scotty Hedrick and Sandy Stolz at Sadie Hawkins Dance win title of Daisy Mae and L'il Abner.

Jacque Jouanet, Harriet Vogan, and Jay Harris clip on the streamers for the Spring Show.

Whatever are Patti Pollard, Barbar Bowles, Patricia Johnson, Mary Trotter, and Suzanne Lewis putting around Big Red? Pajamas? Could be!

Margaret Mahoney, Carolyn Boor, Barbara Howland, Linda Jo Lee, Marilyn Cowden love painting scenery for Lamar shows.

How's this? Bill Hudspeth, Bill Kohlhausen, Milton Mozley, Chuck Caldwell relaxing after hard day in school—at River Oaks Country Club?

LIFE

Carol Wilson turns away, but Tucker Willis and Ronnie Woliver are intrigued with that model of the House of the Seven Gables.

In Mrs. Glosup's room, Senior Ann Baldwin accompanies Juniors Alexandra Sallas, Joanne Smith, and Deanna Galyean in their "off-hour singing."

Barry Moore "cranks up" while David Dakin, Anabel Stelfox, Frances Lloyd, and Giles Rayburn look on in wonder.

Dorothy Phillips and Pat Newman in pinafores hold up their bows (not beaux) to advertize Chums' Carnival.

Marilyn Walker, Sandra Moyers, Mary Jo Vanderworth smile over college board blanks to be filled out. Will they smile when ratings are announced?

LIFE

In the center of the group Peggy Smith pays for ticket to the next exciting ball game. Mr. Carr makes change in preparation for next customer.

Carolyn Cocks, Gayle Gentry, Stanley Rowe, Kit Hinkle, Francelia Bodden fill out applications for club membership.

A pause at the Roof! Jumbo Banana Split! Hot Fudge Sundae! Ice Cream Cones for Larry Moore, Marilyn Mott, John Kilgore.

Big Smile! No wonder. Sue Harlow, Martha Finney, Charlotte Boykin, Betsy Pearson have just learned they are Low Three May Fete Maids.

Juniors! Juniors! Where art thou? Hundreds of you stand in the auditorium among your classmates ready to join in the benediction following a talk on Brotherhood.

LIFE

Now and then, even juniors relax on the campus. John Heard, Kathy Sangster, Suzy Rhodes, Jo Nell Owers.

Betty Knauth, Sharon Chanslor, David Beale, Aubyn Byers, David Redford, Judy Tucker, Joe Taylor are a few of the junior cabinet stars.

Springtime! Cheertime! And Mary L. Iiams, Acia Elliott, Peter Vennema, Ann Craig, Julie Shaw are "jumping high" in anticipation of that Cheer Leaders' try-out.

David Dakin, Carol Clark, Carolyn Burnett, Halstead McAdoo, Frances Allegret adore that little "racer."

Fire Drill! Building Cleared! Twenty minutes out of class! Find those juniors. They are "among those present" in large numbers.

LIFE

Helen Dayvault, Sim Wade, and Eva Lynn Moore stop by the Orenda office to take a gander at some old annuals.

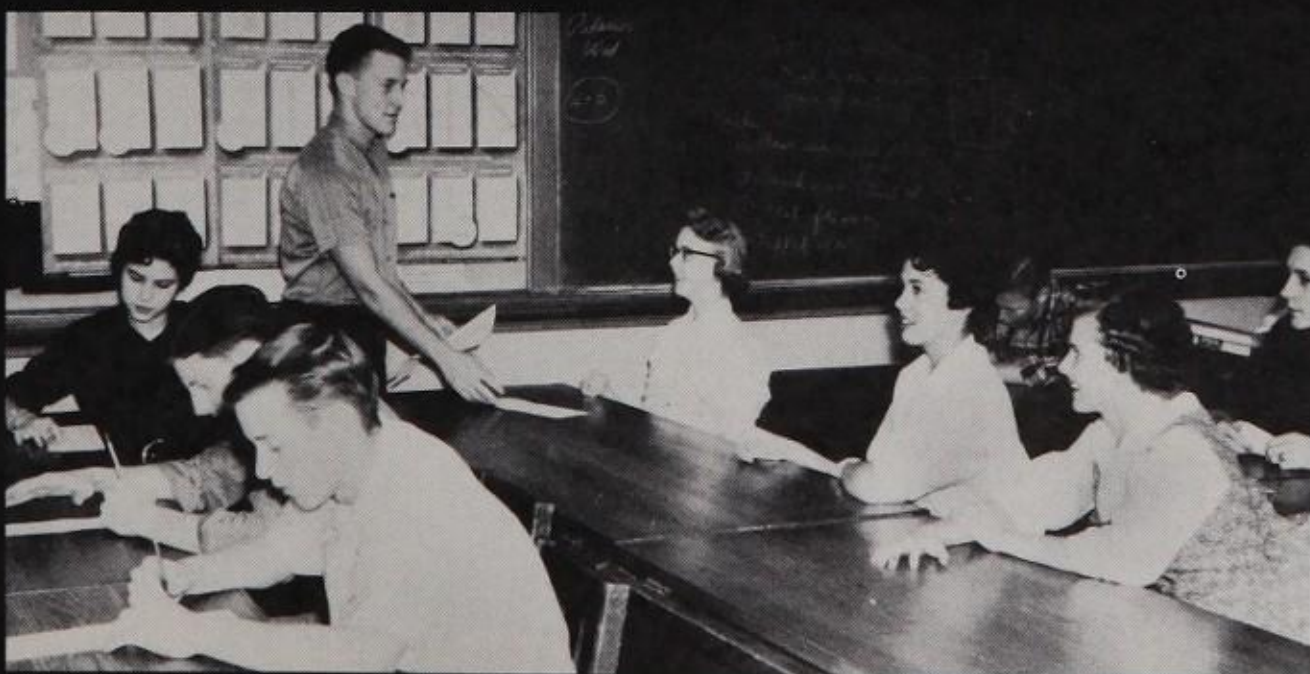

Dick Murray tries to show Carol Henderson, Leslie Davenport, and Robert French how to solve that problem. Are they amused?

What are Marilyn Turner, Gayle Dupont, and Pat Emory finding in the Lancer? Must be most amusing!

Now and then Juniors Virginia Perdue, Martha Gips, Gail Kemp, Mary Jo Vanderworth, Dorothy Phillips, and Ann Pennington find time to eat lunch on the front lawn.

Suzanne White, Mark White, John Charles Whitten, Ronnie Woliver, Roberta Williams, Edith Whitridge, and Carol Wilson cast their votes for May Queen.

Dan Childress, Nancy Harper, Babs Blum, Lydia Blair, Cecile Huck, Cathryn Meldrum, Carol Tomlinson, Claire Fridley, Martha Mortenson, Suzanne Waller—off to the rodeo! Big hats and all!

Puzzled! Happy! Bewildered! Hundreds of "sophs" enter Lamar each fall. Here cheerleader Judy Ley explains to newcomers Charlotte Seaman, Cathy Speer, Maria Burke, K. Culberson, Katherine Branum how to cheer the red and blue.

Sophomores Marion Powell, Moselle Mallet, Dale Ledbetter, Kay Peebles, and Dan Moody "shove off" the minute that three o'clock bell

LIFE

Larry Mims, David Warren, Edward Wells, and Charles Shirar gaze in wonder at the size of trophy won by Lamar athletes.

Lasco Sullivan eagerly collects D. A. R. contest papers. Dudley Deen, Betsy Johnson, Bill Conner, Bettie Dabney rush to hand in essays.

Maria Burke, Marty Heinen, Marietta Morris held up—on their campus ride—by Charlotte Seaman.

The I, T, R's of Lamar service clubs are displayed by Trey Martin, Susan Swift, Clint Kubena, Barry Madden, and Sharon Anderson.

Carol Childress, Jesse Summers, Carol Illig, creative writing enthusiasts, listen carefully to constructive criticism from Miss Helen Greenwood.

COMO SHOW
AND
STAR"

Each year a beauty contest, judged entirely on the pictures, is conducted by the Orenda staff. Any girl who has not been a winner in a previous contest may submit a picture. This year the pictures were sent to Mr. Perry Como—"Most natural and relaxed man in Show Business"—also a Television and Film star. Mr. Como selected Lamar's ten prettiest girls. Runners-up follow the ten most beautiful.

Miss Mary Trotter
Mirabeau B. Lamar Senior High School
Westheimer and River Oaks Blvd.
Houston, Texas

Dear Miss Trotter:

I am in receipt of your letter and photographs of the contestants for the beauty contest for "The Orenda."

It is a pleasure for me to act as judge, and if it were up to me I would make each and every one a winner - they are all such lovely girls.

However, as that is not possible I have chosen the first ten winners as you requested.

In first place I have selected Miss Pat Summers, and the following girls, in the order as printed, as runners up: Judy Polinski, Sandra Stolz, Helen Dayvault, Charla Elliott, Carolyn Burton, Ann Rendleman, Anita Sue Brown, Florence Doggett and Marlene Hayes.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Perry Como

HONORABLE MENTION TO . . .

ART

HARRIS MILAM—Always with a pencil or paintbrush in hand—moccasins shuffling, hands constantly busy—irreplaceable to the art and drama department.

DRAMA

TOMMY TUNE—"The pajama game is the game I'm in"—he can dance, he can sing, he can direct, he's Mrs. Denney's "right arm" in putting on musicals.

ENGLISH

LAURENT HODGES—"To be or not to be, that is the question"—a whiz at diagramming—the reading of good books is an education itself—his briefcase, a wealth of knowledge.

HOME ECONOMICS

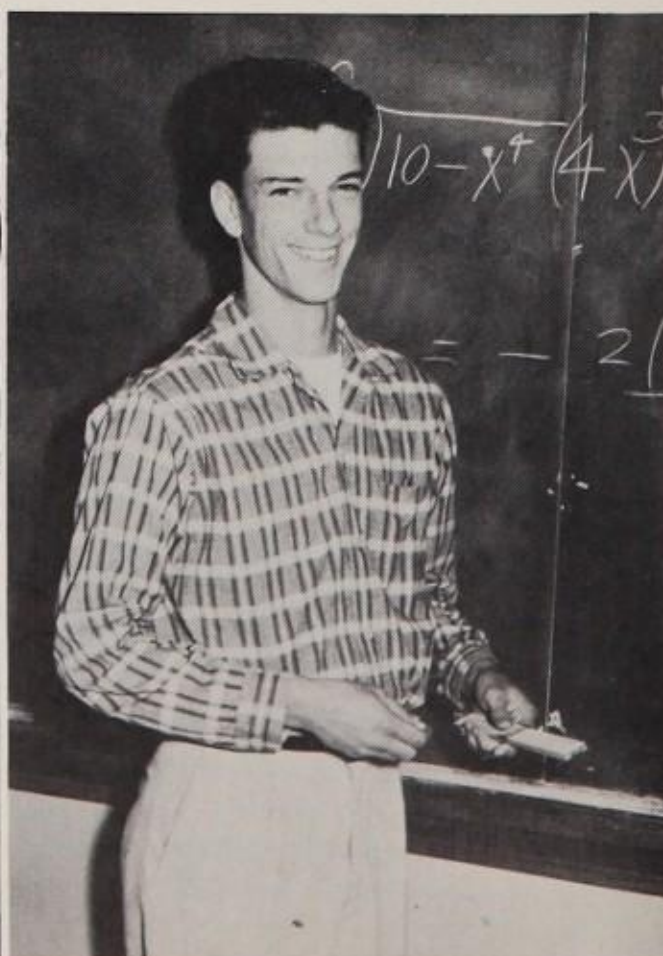

CAROL ANN SCHUTZE—"The way to man's heart is through his stomach"—cooking, a universally appreciated art—"Mrs. Wilson, let us bake a lemon meringue pie today."

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

JUDY PAULEY—parlez-vous francais?—nimble-tongued Judy—conjugating irregular verbs and memorizing idioms are pleasant for her.

MATHEMATICS

BOB JENKINS quietly brilliant in math—a master of fractions, logarithms, parabolas, hyperbolas, and theorems—a collector of protractors, compasses, and slide rules.

MUSIC

NED BATTISTA—head of the trumpeteers—music, music, music—good lungs, a horn, and Ned's talented fingers yield rhythm—practice has made almost perfect.

SCIENCE

CHARLES PRESCOTT—often found surrounded with thistle tubes, beakers, and a rubber apron—handy with the slide rule, equations, and a physic book.

METAL SHOP

ALAN HILL—tedious work yields valuable products—do guitars and metal lathes mix, Alan?—talent in his hands and more talent in his voice.

WOOD SHOP

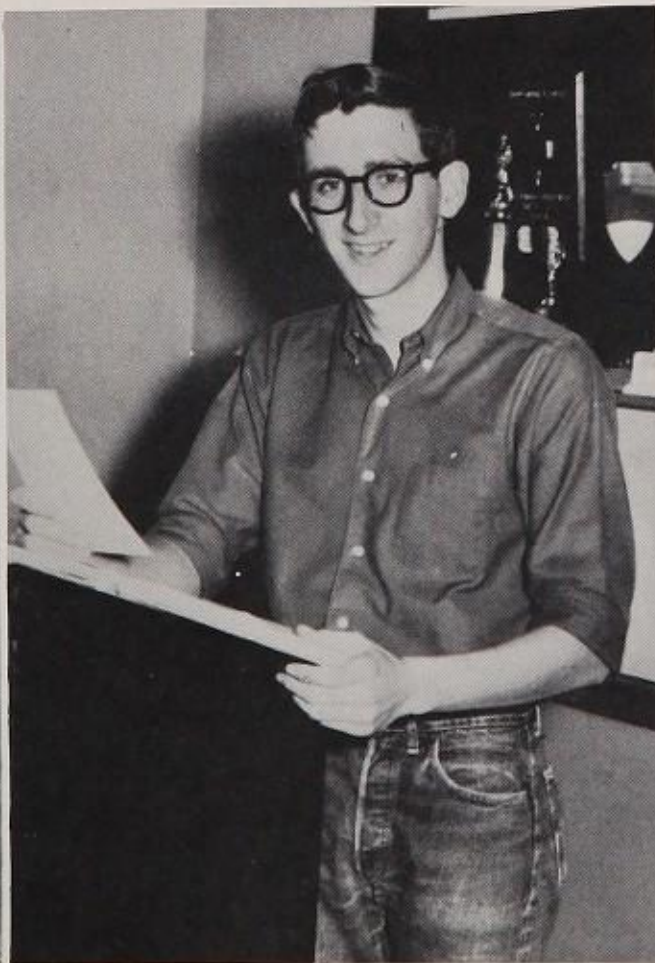

CHARLIE FOGARTY—ouch, blankety-blank, my finger!—working with wood, the world's oldest art—sawing, hammering, sand-papering, and, at last, varnishing.

SPEECH

RANDY ELLIOTT—"May I have your attention for just one more short announcement"—off to another debate tournament—president of National Forensic League.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

ANN KRIEGEL—familiar sight in the history department of the public library—interested in people, past and present—has command of the Constitution.

Under tattered Tawasi finery, sophomores prepare to take city-wide examination.

One-Act Play directors Gay Irving, Ann Whitty, Carol Vincent, and Tommy Tune talk business.

Is Carlos Hamilton crowning Cathey Searls homecoming queen or is he just patting her on the head?

Lamar's Lasca Sullivan, winner of Professional Club Scholarship, and lead in fantastic Ballet Pantomime, "Alice in Wonderland."

Applauding audience lauds Mrs. Denney, Jimbo Simmons, Walter Conrad, Mike Lurie, and the Spotlight Theater.

Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Constance, Miss Pleasants, Mrs. Sims, Mr. Duggan, and Mr. Camp prepare to take a look at the new crop at Sophomore Orientation.

"Hurry up, hurry up, can't waste time!" Factory girls A. Riggs, J. Orr, M. Bradt take front seats at the factory in this year's Spring Show. T. Tune makes a study of time.

There's nothing like dividing into circles of small talk on the dance floor. L. Moehlman stands calmly by, but J. Helme seems perturbed. J. McKinney, are you bored with P. Wright gossiping?

D. McClure and J. A. McFaddin are off to a good start for the day. C. Lebourg, B. J. Padfield, B. Stolz, B. Beddingfield go toward homerooms with cheerful, determined expressions.

D.A.R. Award Winner, Diane Donnelly, and runners-up, Alison Finney, Kay Pope, Judy Ley, and Mary Trotter, gather for a chat.

Mary Sue Hanks, winner of the Ramal Cup, receives the trophy from last year's recipient, Mary Trotter.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS—

Denny's Demons Harris Milam, Milton Womack, and John Parker grease up the clever factory machines for Lamar's Spring Show.

Barry Moore proudly receives the Tawasi Cup for most outstanding high junior boy from last year's recipient, David Hamilton.

MAY FETE MAIDS

Row I: Kay Patton, Mary Sue Hanks, Barbara Mangum, Georgia Reynolds, Betsy Pearson, Susan Ellis, Maria Burke, Pat Shannon, Patsy Smith.

Row II: Anita Jones, Mimi Harvey, D. Ann Watts, Louise Wright, Sally Bell, Marlene Hayes, Carolyn Burton, Martha Finney, Laurie Rayburn, Ann Craig, Kathy Sangster.

THE 1956 FOOT

LAMAR 0, BAYTOWN 0

Lamar and Baytown, both high school football powers, met September 14, and battled to a 0-0 tie, neither team realizing they would play the other again in the quarter-finals of the state playoffs. They settled nothing in the fourteenth renewal of their hot series before a crowd of twelve thousand. It was a scoreless tie, Baytown running better and the Redskins passing better as two penetrations, one each, were made. This was Baytown's second straight shutout. The Ganders lost to Tyler, 20-0, in last year's state semifinals. There were fifteen fumbles, the Redskins losing four and Baytown losing five. First downs and net rushing, mostly by Ronnie Cornelius, Steve McWilliams and Wesley Hicks, favored Baytown. Lamar completed five of ten passes for ninety-five yards, including David Hamilton's thirty-seven-yarder to Lee Raesener that almost went for a touchdown. It carried to the nineteen, from where the Indians pushed to the seven before more passes failed. That was Lamar's only serious threat. Baytown, denied on the Redskin's ten, twenty-one, twenty-three, and twenty-five, tried a field goal in the first quarter, Gordon Spencer kicking wide from the twenty-two. Despite the absence of scoring punch, the defenses showed midseason form. Mike Bowen, Jim Allison, Jim Brock, and Denny Pederson helped jam Baytown's pigeon-toed split T controlled by frustrated Lucas Vegas. Had the offensive tactics worked as well as the defensive ones for both sides, the conclusion to this story might have been entirely different. Though they battled to a scoreless tie, the Redskins deserve recognition, as this was the first time their 1956 team had played as a unit against strong competition.

BALL SEASON

LAMAR 7, MILLER 0

A sixteen-yard scoring pass from Lee Raesener to David Hamilton, just the opposite of the attack that had carried them into scoring territory, earned Lamar a bruising 7-0 decision over Corpus Christi Miller, September 21. To the Redskins went the "honor" of handing Miller Coach Tom Pruett the first loss he's suffered in Buccaneer Stadium since taking over as Buc Coach in 1953. Since then, Miller had won twenty-two of twenty-four home games, dating back to early 1952 when they lost to Beaumont South Park, 19-13. It was also the first time Miller had been held scoreless since San Antonio Thomas Jefferson did it on October 13, 1953, when the two teams played to a 0-0 tie in the mud. The lone Lamar score was the culmination of a fifty-seven-yard drive which started when a Miller fourth down gamble for a first down failed. Twice in the ensuing series, Hamilton tossed to Raesener, once for thirteen yards and again for seventeen. In between Raesener carried the ball twice, and apparently had the Buc defense set up for the same thing when the work horse Lamar back started wide on an apparent end sweep. Instead he threw to Hamilton on the three and the latter drove his way into the end zone despite the attempts of a Miller tackler to drive him out of bounds. Before that drive, Lamar had never penetrated the Miller forty. The Bucs, however, were having plenty of trouble with the tough Lamar defensive line and their tiny scatbacks were never able to shake loose from the relentless Redskins.

LAMAR 20, PASADENA 20

Although it was Lamar's second tie in three starts, Coach Pepper was heartened by his heretofore sluggish single wing that gobbled 298 yards and 14 first downs. David Hamilton, a triple-threater, scored 20 points. He ran 18 and 32 yards for touchdowns and caught a 13 yard pass from John Wolf for the T.D. and kicked two extra points. In the closing minutes Lamar drove 73 yards to Pasadena's two before time ran out on Allen Caldwell's plunge. Caldwell repeatedly exploited Pasadena's middle on spinner plays. Although the Redskins battled to a tie, they showed "championship" spirit.

LAMAR 33, MILBY 0

Lamar, looking like the fabulous Redskins of the Fondren era, overpowered the Milby Buffaloes to a 33-0 victory. Gaining almost at will on the ground and in the air, the Redskins ran up 356 yards and punted only once in their intra-city football opener. The relentless Redskins scored twice in the first and third quarter. David Hamilton, who added the extra points after the last three counters, passed for the first, third, and fifth tallies, Lee Raesener on the receiving end of the first two, and Allen Caldwell pulling the last one in.

LAMAR 44, DAVIS 0

Gaining its third win of the season and exerting its claim as top chief on the city high school totem pole, Lamar's Redskins swept by Jeff Davis, 44-0 in a game played at Junior High School Stadium. Controlling the ball almost throughout the game, the Indians displayed an aggressive attack that netted them 392 yards through the ground and air. Taking the opening kickoff the Redskins scored the first time it had its hands on the ball, back Stan Terry racing 61 yards. The point was no good and Lamar led, 6-0. Ending the scoring, back John G. Wolf raced six yards for a tally from the Davis four.

LAMAR 26, REAGAN 0

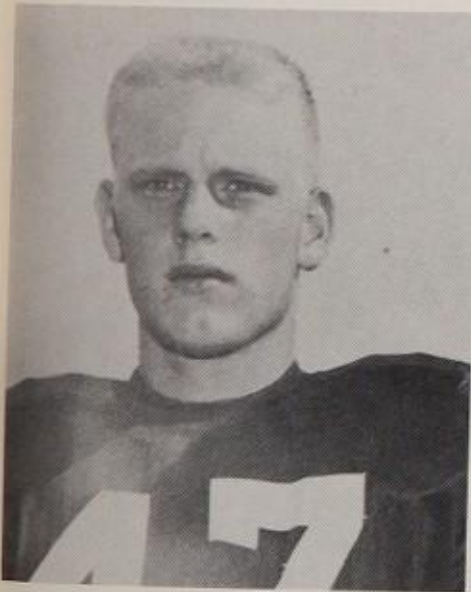

Mighty Lamar taught the Reagan Bulldogs the cold facts of single-wing football. There was no score in the first period, but the Redskins left the field at the half nursing a 6-0 lead. In the second half Lamar wasted no time, scoring in three plays after the kick-off that was returned 60 yards to Reagan's 16 by Raesener. Raesener later scored from the 6, and David Hamilton added the first of two extra points. Caldwell drove 1 yard to end a 51-yard march later in the third quarter and made it 20-0. Finally, in the fourth, Lamar smashed 89 yards in seven plays, Hamilton passing to Stan Terry for the touchdown.

LAMAR 28, SAM HOUSTON 21

Lamar, famed for its second-half bounce, picked up a couple of touchdowns in the third period of the Sam Houston game and another in the fourth. The Tigers never stopped David Hamilton, the ace Lamar wingback and playmaker, who delivered 14 times for 185 yards, and the Redskin's third touchdown. He set up the fourth counter on a first-down 71-yard burst down the right sideline. The Redskins received vigorous defensive play from Mike Bowen, Hamilton, Allen Caldwell, Arved White, and Mike Rutherford.

LAMAR 39, SAN JACINTO 13

The powerful Redskin single-wing swung quickly into high speed as Lamar rolled over the dumbfounded San Jacinto Bears. Lamar exerted enough power on offense and an ample amount of defensive work to keep the Bears baffled most of the night. The powerful running and deception of Lamar's backfield men kept San Jacinto guessing from the first kickoff. Led by line backer Mike Bowen, the Indians' stubborn defense held the Bears to two touchdowns and kept them in a state of bewilderment.

LAMAR 19, BELLAIRE 0

Playing in the Junior High School Stadium had no effect on mighty Lamar as they rolled over the somewhat bewildered Cardinal Eleven and added another "shutout" to their long list. Playing in "rather cool" weather, the Redskins had to score a number of touchdowns to keep one or two from being called back. Two touchdowns in two plays were called back as end John Biggs, the receiver of both TD passes, became somewhat tired of the whole situation. Nevertheless Lamar escaped with three counters to their credit.

LAMAR 21, AUSTIN 12

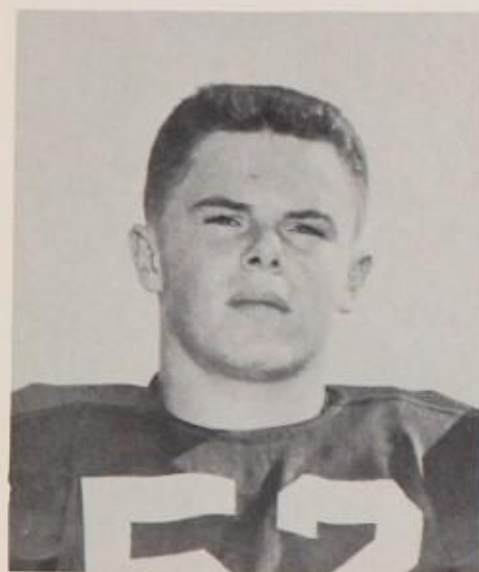

With only 5 minutes, 45 seconds gone in the 1st. quarter, Lamar took over on the Mustang 31-yard stripe and in five plays had a 7-0 lead. Fullback Allen Caldwell broke over tackle off a spinner and went the last 15 yards for a touchdown. Caldwell later scored from the Austin one and Hamilton converted, making the score 14-6. In the fourth quarter Lamar moved the kick-off 71 yards in 11 plays to score. This ended the scoring for the night.

LAMAR 33, SAM HOUSTON 0

Alert on defense, Lamar defeated Sam Houston to bag its seventh city title in the last 11 years. Three pass interceptions and a fumble capture led to four Lamar touchdowns in its seventh shutout performance in 11 games. Denied by such defenders as Jimmy Brock, Mike Bowen, Ray Alborn, and Barnett Garrison on Lamar's 20, 2, and 7, Sam Houston went scoreless. David Hamilton, Lamar's all-purpose back, gained 84 yards on 10 carries, scored one touchdown and passed for another. Stan Terry, Lee Raesener's understudy, earned first-string consideration by scoring twice, once on a run and once on a pass. Two of Lamar's best defense men, Jim Brock and Barnett Garrison, got into the scoring act by each intercepting one of Phillip's passes.

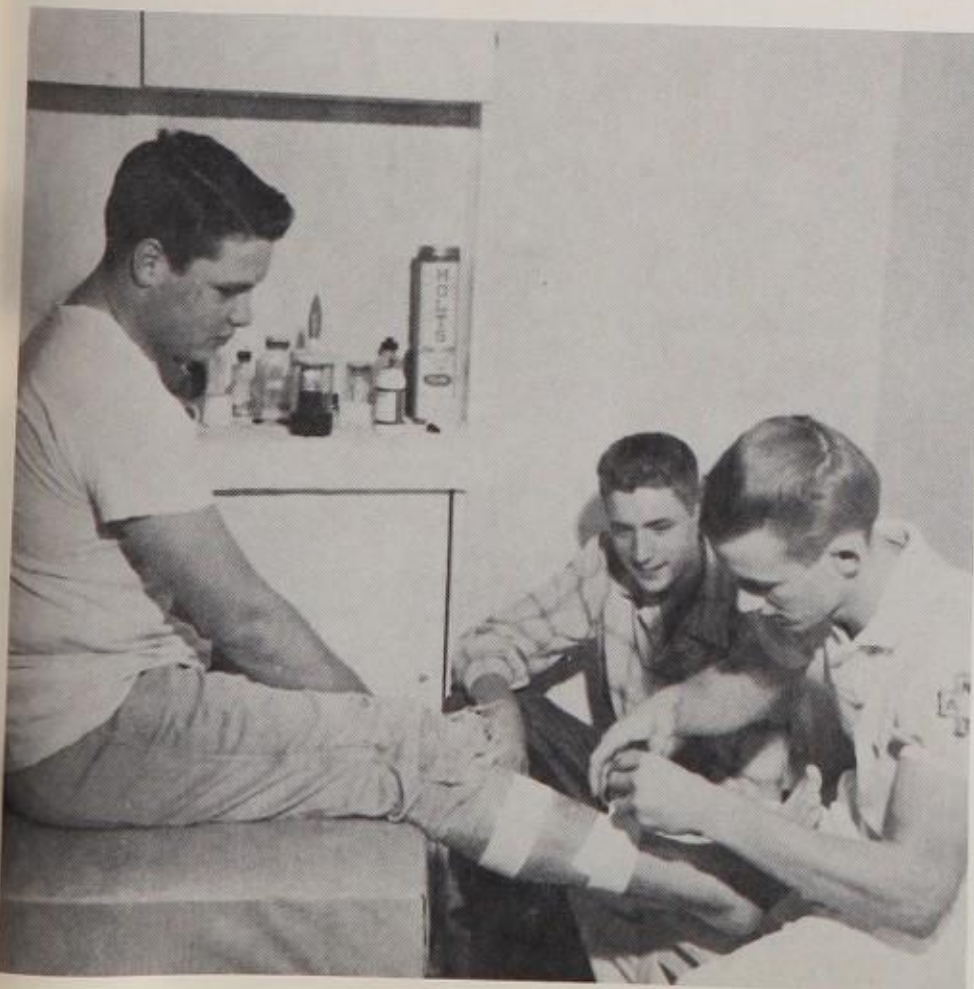

LAMAR 20, BAYTOWN 28

A number of injuries, we think, is the only thing that hindered the Redskins and kept them from winning the quarter-finals in that fateful game with Baytown. Taking an early lead, the Indians grabbed two TD's in the opening minutes but previous injuries and a few extra ones began to show in the Redskin's shaggy but strongly determined team. Throughout the game the relentless Redskins battled valiantly to subdue the Ganders. From beginning to end Lamar never gave up. They pushed on, each play trying harder for those six points. Though Baytown led most of the game, we feel confident had it not been for so many injuries the name Lamar would have meant State AAAA Champions of '56 football.

Captains Ray Alborn, Allen Caldwell, David Hamilton, and Mike Bowen.

Trainers John Charles Whitten and Stephen Smith administer "aid" to Sonny Young.

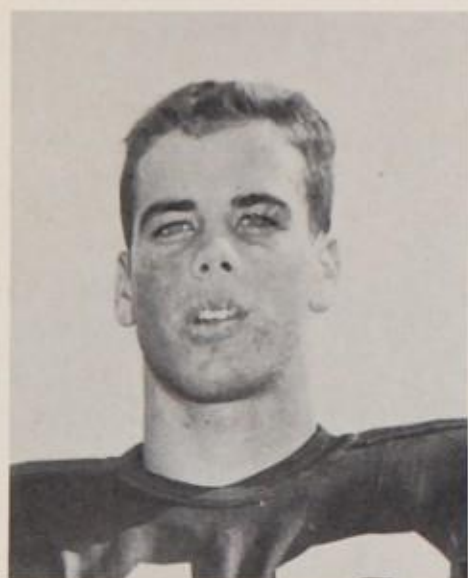

Managers Dennis McMahon and Thad Spencer work on a pair of shoes while Lamar Booker seems dumbfounded over the whole thing.

The 1956 football team was not a State Championship team but it was a City Championship team. The Redskins put a lot of work and hard scrap into a strongly determined will and were just barely held back from endless victory by adverse conditions. Instructed by Coach Pepper, Lamar turned a team of few real "standouts" into a united group of players that we will long be proud of. In following last year's team they lived up to tradition; in preceding next year's team they set the example. Victory seems to be Lamar's watchword, and the football team lived up to it. To its members we say, "Thanks, fellows, for something to be proud of." To next year's team we say, "Follow tradition . . . VICTORY!"

CITY CHAMPS

"The boys with the shaggy suits." "The guys with no spectators." "The varsity's children." This is what many people say of the "B" team. That's because they don't know! The "B" team won the city championship this year and proved to be an able and well-equipped group of athletes. Coach Johnson and Coach Stewart helped illustrate the power of the Indian "B's". Many of these boys will be varsity men next year, and the experience they've had will prove invaluable to them and help them as varsity players next year.

BASKETBALL 1956-1957

The Redskins got a lot of practice in reaching for the stars by reaching for the rim of the basket on the hardwood court in '56-'57. The motto of Lamar was faithfully upheld by the Redskin team, made up of nine seniors and three juniors. At mid-term we lost graduating Richard Tinsley and John Davis, and Denny Hill, whose eligibility ran out. Their absence was greatly felt, as District 10AAAAA play didn't start until after mid-term. However, Arved White and David Hamilton made the All-City team, unanimous choice and honorable mention, respectively.

THE CITY RACE

When high school play began in January, Lamar seemed to be grabbing more stars than anybody else in the intra-city District 9AAAA games. The 'Skins emerged with a sparkling 4-0 record, facing competition in the 10-AAAA bracket. Defeat came in the first district game from the Bellaire team, surprisingly strong in rebounds and shots from out. The Redskins easily shot down Austin and San Jacinto in the first half of district play. Then, meeting Bellaire the second time, Lamar lost by one point in the last few heartbreaking seconds. The Redskins once more met and defeated Austin and San Jacinto, cinching a second place position in District 10-AAAA.

THE B-TEAM

Lamar Basketball's B-Team represents, in a broad sense, the proving ground for future basketball stars of the A-Team. The B-Team, made up of sophomores and juniors, practices as long and as hard as the A-Team, and the games are played in the unglamorous afternoon in the high school gym.

The B-Team in '56-'57 had a record to be really proud of. They won three out of four of the district 9AAAA intracity games, losing to Sam Houston (a foreshadowing of things to come). In the first half of district play, Lamar lost only to Bellaire. Then in the second half of play, our B-Team came through with true Red and Blue flying colors, winning all three games and clinching the District 10AAAA title.

In the city play-offs, the B-Team won the first game with Sam Houston, but lost the next two, in a two out of three series. The Redskin B-Team grabbed another star for us this year with the district title, and second place in city competition.

Against Bellaire's B team, tall Joe De Lorenzo, David Beale, and Billy Nelson offer some pretty rugged defense on the Backboard.

"Legs" Nelson comes down with the rebound as David Beale and Jimmy Berly edge out the Austin B team snipers.

COACH BERT KIVELL

TRACK 1957

As the 1957 track season looms over the horizon, Lamar's chances for its seventh straight city championship and its third state title in seven years look very good. With many men that were a part of the 1956 Championship Team returning, Coach Bert Kivell strongly feels that he and his boys have a good chance to repeat last year's action. Backing the team are five boys that attended and placed in the state meet last year as juniors: Jim Allison, George Gault, Barnett Garrison, Arved White, and Tom Mayor. Early this season our boys have established marks that equal or surpass some of those they set last year at the end of the season. The teamwork of the squad is excellent and Coach Kivell's coaching is, we feel, superlative, as usual. If the 1957 team retains the initiative and spirit of the 1956 team and what they have already shown in 1957, we think they will go a long way in track this year.

Bob Taylor, Jay Harris, Lynn Zarr, Dana Childress, and Tommy Nard, await the start of the butterfly stroke.

Divers Don Murff, Reed Robinson, and Dick Murray make up a promising team.

SWIMMING

With six returning city lettermen, five returning state lettermen, and a number of promising prospects, Coach Harold Tate, in his second year as swimming coach hopes to capture the city championship for the twelfth straight year. Last year twelve redskins placed in the city meet. In the state finals Lamar placed five boys, including Bob Taylor's record-tying time in the 100-yard breaststroke. This year the Redskins, trying for their twelfth city championship, will be backed by five state lettermen: Mike Hill, Dick Moers, Bob Taylor, Calder Myer, and Jay Harris. Due to the rise of strong competition in the Texas schools and the absence of ace letterman Jim Holt the Redskins will be a tough spot this year. However, we feel that with the spirit they have they will prove to be a championship team.

Free stylers Calder Myer, John McKinney, Tommy Oliver, Richard Browning, Todd Smith, Tom Saunders, Paul Duggan, Dale Ledbetter, David Wight, and Joe Wheat listen to Coach Tate's instructions.

Relaymen Mike Hill, Bob Taylor, Jay Harris, and Bruce Langston check their time as manager Steve Farson kneels beside them.

Manager Jim Grotte looks on as free-style relayers Clint Baird, Bob Sick, Dick Moers, and Doug Simpkins prepare to start.

GOLF

In past history Lamar has excelled in golf competition. The Redskin team has been one constantly feared by competing teams. The performance of Lamar boys in previous tournaments has set a goal for the 1957 members. Led by Homero Blancas and Billy Kohlhausen and backed by several upcoming sophomores, the Redskin chances look good. Thus, with fine group of golf enthusiasts and much new talent, we feel that the Redskins, led by Coach Longcope, can be confident that they will preserve Lamar's former victories.

As Homero Blancas tees off, Billy Kohlhausen looks on intently.

Golf team members Homero Blancas, Tom Wise, Bill Kohlhausen, Milton Geiselman, Allen Nichols, and Milton Mozley watch Bill Hudspeth's putt.

1957

Last year proved to be a trying year for the Redskins as they ended up in third place in the city race. However, Lamar's "ball and bat" men look forward to a better outcome in 1957. Led by lettermen Gene Good, Pat Sherrill, Jay Taylor, Lee Raesener, and Bob Callaway and Coach Coy Stewart, the Redskins' goal seems very close this year, and we feel confident that Lamar will head the list in victories.

Lou Brazelton seems somewhat cheerful as he is tagged by Pat Sherrill and watched by Gene Good.

Lee Raesener, John Wolf, Jay Taylor, and Bob Callaway listen to Coach Stewart criticize Buddy Ives' form.

TENNIS

1957

Many people, considering tennis a minor sport, fail to realize the hard work and practice required for a player to make good. So it is at Lamar. In the field of high school athletics, tennis holds a high spot in the heart of Redskin athletes. Backed by Jimmy Bertrand and led by Coach Calvin Gentry, the Lamar tennis team seems sure that they will capture the city championship crown in one phase of spring athletics.

Tennis team members Jim Bertrand, Jack Kamrath, Jonathan Day, and Wade Whilden discuss future events.

Jack Kamrath, Jonathan Day, and Wade Whilden display rare agility as they leap over the net.

Jack Kamrath, Jim Bertrand, and Jonathan Day look on as Wade Whilden seems to be performing some unusual stunt.

MEMO

As the annual goes to press, an otherwise happy school year is saddened by the passing of our beloved assistant principal, Mr. K. Lamar Camp. Although he has been Lamar's assistant principal for only three short years, the students will long remember his kindly smile and his gentle manner.

Because of an early deadline, the ORENDA staff is unable to picture for you some of Lamar's important spring events. In spring sports, Mr. Bert Kivell and his boys have won the Border Olympics. Norman Charlton was an outstanding contestant.

In the entertainment department, Mrs. Ruth Denny has just announced that Jerry Wright, Diane Francis, and Bobbie Louise Hainline will have the leading roles in the annual contest play, which is Years Ago.

The Staff Members owe many thanks to our friends who heard nothing but ORENDA talk; to our teachers, who understood when we failed to hand anything in on time; to our parents, who never saw us. Moreover, our sincere thanks go to: our student photographer, Jody Wofford, for his willingness to make pictures; to Mr. Glenn Stanbaugh, for his quick work on athletic pictures; to our professional photographers—Roulande Studios, Provine Studios, Parsley's Studios, J. P. Crowe Studios; to members of the Student Council; to the presidents and sponsors of the Clubs; to Earl Vanzant, for his aid with the R.O.T.C. coverage; to Miss Genevieve Filson, for her supervision of the art work; to Mrs. Edith Boren and Mrs. Lorena Kobs; and to Mr. J. H. Wright for his constant encouragement.

The ORENDA, which was ours so long, now is yours. Every line of copy, every picture, every piece of art work is familiar to us. The final copy is ready for the printer, and the long hours of work are over. Many graduates have made Lamar the first rung on the ladder of fame; let us follow in their triumphant path as we climb toward the stars.
